

West-Moreland

The Teams

Mariner Mooses

- Mike Moore and Gary Wheelock
- Scott Altus
- Stephen Bayles
- Bob Christilaw
- Dave Curbow
- James Curbow
- Dave DePartee
- Brandon Larson
- Mike Murphey
- Kevin Noreen
- John Rowe
- Jim Sterba
- Keith Swenson
- Katrina Walter
- Jon West-Moreland

SFS

- Brian Holman and Keith Comstock
- Paul Bergstrom
- Eric Burak
- Dave Cassels
- Craig Freshour
- Bart Kale
- Brian May
- James Monahan
- Alice Scaggs
- Autie Scaggs
- Mark Smith
- Stuart Sommerville
- Jason Southard
- Elisa Thomases

The Mesa-Holics

- Dave Stewart, Greg Cadaret and Adam Panayotovitch
- Wayne Bewley
- Tim Colwell
- Scott Higbee
- Steve Higbee
- Mike Hilton

Saturday, Jan. 12, 2019

"The Best Fantasy Camps Have to Offer"

The troops gather for the start of fundamentals stations Friday.

Westmoreland center of hyphen-gate controversy

9:00 am Team Photos

9:50

Mariner Mooses

vs.
SFS

Mesa-Holics

vs.

The Babitt Smackers

1:45

Mariner Mooses

vs.

The Hendu's

SFS

vs.

Mesa-Holics

Controversy rocked the Mariners half of the Oakland A's/Seattle Mariners Fantasy Camp Friday as Keith Comstock and Brian Holman were laid low by a hyphen. Because Jon Westmoreland's name came at the end of the line on the draft board, Comstock and Holman thought they were looking at two players they didn't know. West and Moreland.

Seattle Mariners official representative Sara Buchanan has been identified as the culprit who committed the hyphen. "Plus," Comstock complained following the draft, "she wrote those names in pink! who would draft a couple of guys with pink names?"

See Huge Page 2

See Teams Page 2

Dallas Braden says former Mariner Ken Scott must have a strong performance if The Babitt Smackers are to compete for a championship.

Huge...

So, the General, whom they took for granted would be wearing an A's uniform, was snapped up by Mike Moore and Gary Wheelock, who had actually been paying attention.

As a penalty for general incompetence, the commissioner ruled that Holman and Comstock would be penalized by losing a draft pick, and Keith Swenson was sent from Holman and Comstock's SFS squad to the Mariners Mooses, managed by Moore and Wheelock.

When asked for comment, Wheelock and Moore were laughing too hard to provide an answer.

A bitter Keith Comstock said, "What do I think of my team? What do I think of my team? I think our team name speaks for itself. SFS. That stands for Shit Fucking Stinks!"

Mike Moore's only comment was, "I like our chances."

On the A's side of the ledger, Dallas Braden summed up the team he and Bobby Crosby drafted.

"Once again, we felt the Babitt Smackers put together a pretty good draft. While we were in the draft room. Then we took an hour to sober up, and we remembered we are here to have a good time. That's kind of how this went down. I think we have a good chance of hanging around until the championship game if everyone remains healthy, and we get a big performance out of (former Mariner) Ken Scott."

Shooty Babitt and Bert Campaneris will manage The Hendu's.

"As always," Shooty said, "I like our chances. We drafted a great group of guys. We're looking forward to the week. We're going to represent what Dave Henderson stood for. We're looking forward to it."

The Mesa-Holics will be managed by Dave Stewart, Greg Cadaret and Adam Panayotovich.

"I just hope the Mesa-Holics are not too hung over to make it around the bases," Cadaret said.

The answer will be revealed on the field today.

Teams...

Gary Hopper
 Matt Langseth
 Terry Lockhart
 David Rekart
 Melody Rekart
 Gordon Yost

The Babitt Smackers

Dallas Braden and Bobby Crosby

Seth Bohne
 John Conroy, Jr.
 Brett Farley
 Gene Feickert
 Sean Finn
 Bruce Fraser
 Bryce Fraser
 Steven Lehmann
 Mike Martinez
 Dave McLaughlin
 Ken Scott
 Dale Skinner

The Hendu's

Shooty Babitt and Bert Campaneris

Jason Barnes
 Eddie Contreras
 Dennis Conyers
 Steven Douglas
 Tony Dreher
 John Grinold
 Sean Henly
 David Kull
 Neil McConnell
 Mike Mello
 Marty Mogk
 Cody Geddes