"The Best Fantasy Camps Have to Offer"

Cody Geddes had a big day at the plate for the Hendu's

Controversial call brings demand for video review

Keith Comstock, manager of the 0-2 SFS squad, made an impassioned plea following Saturday afternoon's A's/Mariners Fantasy Camp games following a controversial call at first base which Keith said resulted in "an entirely different ballgame."

In the fifth inning of their afternoon game against the Mesa-Holics, trailing only 6-0, SFS got two quick outs when a controversial call left a Mesa-Holic runner safe at first base. The Mesa-Holics went on to score 14 runs before the inning finally ended.

"If video review was allowed in these (expletive-expletive-expletive-expletive) fantasy camps, we would have had a great game," Comstock said. “We had on video that Moron Joe out there missed the call. And it really fouled us all up. It led to 14 runs, all with two outs. We’ve got video all over the place, so I’m pushing for video right now. Because it would have been an entirely different ballgame. The score wouldn’t have been 18-1. It might have been, say, 12-1.”

The unbeaten Saturday teams were the Babitt Smackers, managed by Dallas Braden and Bobby Crosby, and The Hendu’s, managed by Shooty Babitt and Bert Campaneris. The Smackers handled the Mesa-Holics 20-7, and The Hendu’s were 21-9 winners over the Mariners Mooses.

The Mooses turned in a 1-1 split as they defeated SFS in a morning game 22-13. The Mesa-Holics joined them with a 1-1 mark.

Holic’s manager Greg Cadaret shrugged off the morning loss to the Smackers. “It’s all about the playoffs, anyway,” Cadaret said. “We used some different guys in the afternoon, tried to save some bodies. Tonight, we’ll be icing from the inside, trying to live up to the Mesa-holics reputation.”

“Today was a character-building day,” Hendu’s manager Shooty Babitt said. “We were put in position to get our fortitude checked and we passed the test.”

The Mariners Mooses jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the top of the first, but the Hendu’s roared back in the bottom of the frame with five runs and overtook the Mooses with six more in the third. The final was 21-9.

“The maturity and competence of our team prevailed, and we built the kind of momentum that sustained our lead. The result was a big victory against a very, very good Mariner team,” Shooty added with just a touch of sarcasm.

Bobby Crosby said his team “absolutely dominated” the Mesa-Holics.

“To be honest, we knew we drafted pretty well, but the best thing about this win was that everybody contributed.”

Crosby had specific praise for rookie John Conroy, who has been mistakenly identified as John Conway due to a jersey misprint. Conroy, Crosby said, “is kind of on a different planet, which is amazing. But he came in and pitched awesome for us and got some hits.”

He called Dale Skinner their “biggest surprise.” Skinner went two for two at the plate with five RBI. Steve Lehmann had a three for four day with three RBI. Bryce Fraser was three for four with three RBI.

Brandon Larson had a big day for the Mooses, going four for five with four RBI in the Mooses two games.

Matt Langseth was seven for seven with five RBI for the Mesa-Holics in their games.

Cody Geddes and John Grinold each went three for four for the Hendu’s.
